

From The Child's World and Big Timber Media:

With an overwhelming number of schools and libraries closed or closing in response to COVID-19, The Child's World has taken the opportunity to collaborate with Big Timber Media to support educators during these challenging times. Many of our eBooks are now available for FREE through June 30, 2020. These digital offerings can be found as part of Big Timber's Distance Learning Collections. Each collection contains a variety of eBooks to provide educational opportunities for students at home. Together, we can work together to ensure children have the materials they need to keep reading—and learning.

Click here to discover all the titles available in each collection. These collections include one for the following groups:

- Grades PreK– 2
- Grades 3 – 5
- Grades 6 – 8
- Grades 9 - 12

Please share access information with educators, parents, and students to keep learning opportunities available for all children during this unprecedented time.

These bundles are web-hosted, which means accessing your eBooks requires an internet connection. Visit the collections below, and feel free to share the links with your students and other educators.